Locked-down with Jesus!

Parable of the Friend at Midnight and the persistent Widow

Play Game: FEET-IONARY (refer to list of words to get names for family members to draw)
Divide members in two teams. Two members from each team to take a turn. One will hold paper and other member will have marker between their toes. Teammate to draw word they are given, and other members must guess what they are drawing. Rotate each one to have a turn.

Connect Time:
Jesus encourages us that persistent prayers will be rewarded with an answer. Whatever situation we pray about, God promises us the Holy Spirit to help us with our challenges. Keep praying in the Spirit, with faith.
Persistent prayers are powerful. Jesus uses the man pestering his friend at midnight to encourage us to keep asking, keep seeking, keep knocking. Keep your courage and faith. Keep asking God if your prayers are not answered immediately. Some things we experience that are not fair. Just like the widow. But God promises that he will help. It is good to open to God and share your feelings with him.
Questions:

1) What does the word persist mean?
2) Do you believe Jesus answers your prayers?
3) Are you currently praying for something specific?
